

Being a resident of Utah, K-LOVE is a very important part of our daily listening. It would be a great loss to the local community if K-Love were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming as we have very few resources for interdenominational Christian broadcasting. Their family-friendly programming supporting wholesome values and having a positive and encouraging impact on communities all across America is very vital.